

Access has its privileges.

Log on and explore the newly enhanced ffi.org. It's your connection to an exclusive hub of family business information and resources. With more intuitive navigation, a robust search capability, and rapid information capture, your research and information access needs are now more easily and efficiently achieved.

The new ffi.org offers expanded advantages from FBR's partnership with SAGE. It improves article searching while enabling a "Printer Friendly" version of articles and "E-mail Article to a Friend" capability. There's also more breaking news on FFI, its leadership and members.

For FFI members, a Member Directory of expanded profiles, Expedia map links, and self-service instant profile editing delivers a more complete connection to colleagues.

The List, a detailed database of Speakers & Consultants, provides broad cross-referencing, e-mail and web site links that makes finding specific experts more accurate. And a sophisticated Events Calendar enables you to locate a wealth of appropriate professional events near you.

Head to your nearest computer or grab your PDA and start engaging with a one-stop resource for the family business and family wealth fields.

The new ffi.org

The next generation in family business resources has arrived.